*Much of the continuing training/education is available in the E-Learning catalog. If a provider has any questions regarding the appropriateness of a particular training protocol, the Department should be consulted. If a staff person has already received training in an area, the requirement may be waived if the training is documented in the personnel record. In the event that a staff person will be specializing in a particular type of service approach, the agency may request an exception to the portions of the training curriculum not relevant to their work.
